

HUNT BARNETT | PRINCIPAL

Hunt Barnett is a Principal with LA Realty Partners and has been a top-producer in the industry for more than 30 years. Hunt specializes in advising clients on all aspects of tenant and landlord representation including strategic planning, lease, purchase/sale, consultation, marketing, planning/construction and arbitration issues. He provides the full range of real estate advisory services to tenants, investors and landlords.

Hunt's vast experience advising tenants, landlords and investors provides his clients with a unique perspective that most brokers cannot provide.

Prior to joining Madison Partners in early 2004, Hunt joined Insignia/ESG where his performance and leadership established the Insignia/ESG Century City office as the top brokerage firm in the market at the time of its acquisition by CB Richard Ellis in late 2003. Prior to Insignia/ESG Hunt was with CB Richard Ellis for over 19 years where he was a regional and national top producer, located in Beverly Hills/Century City office.

Throughout his career, Hunt has completed more than 900 lease transactions totaling over 7 million square feet. He has represented large, international commercial real estate firms in providing leasing and disposition services for their West Los Angeles office building portfolios, which comprised of 23 properties and over 2 million square feet. For over 15 years Hunt represented a major international defense contractor, in over 40 lease transactions totaling in excess of 4 million square feet. Most recently, Hunt has represented numerous local and regional firms in tenant representation assignments while conducting parallel assignments for several national and regional landlords/investors.

Hunt is a past recipient of the Los Angeles Business Journal's "Tenant Broker Award" and "Landlord Broker Award" and has been honored numerous times including "Hot Broker" by the Southern California Real Estate Journal and "Power Broker" by CoStar. Hunt has been a professional speaker and is often quoted in the press as a market expert. A graduate of the University of Southern California, Mr. Barnett holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in American Studies. He has also attended the University of California at Los Angeles.
