

OWEN FILETI
SENIOR DIRECTOR

Specializing in office properties, Mr. Fileti has an extensive background in client representation for mid to large size corporations throughout Southern California. Mr. Fileti's scope of services range from strategic lease evaluation, occupancy cost reduction analysis, site selection, lease renegotiation, sales and comprehensive brokerage services. As a strategic partner with his clients, he aligns their business plans with real and effective solutions. His client list includes Autodesk, The Fulfillment Fund, H&R Block, I.E. Effects, LiveOffice and the Girl Scouts of Greater Los Angeles.

Mr. Fileti also represents many of the Institutional, Class A landlords including Blackstone/Equity Office, LaSalle Investment Management, REIT's, various joint venture partnerships and private investors.

As an active West Los Angeles community member, Owen participates in numerous local committees and organizations, such as the Board of Directors for the Century City Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles Commercial Real Estate Association and the Urban Land Institute. For the last several years, he has chaired one of the largest West Los Angeles real estate events of the year.

During his career, Mr. Fileti has been awarded several notable honors including Colliers Seeley International Rookie of the Year award and recognized in Real Estate Southern California's publication as one of the "Top 30 Under 30" brokers in Southern California.

EDUCATION AND AFFILIATIONS

- B.A., Colgate University
- President, Century City Chamber of Commerce
- University of Michigan's Global Business Institute Program
- Attended Instituto de Internacional, Madrid, Spain