

TYLER THURLOW

DIRECTOR

---

Tyler Thurlow is a Director with L.A. Realty Partners specializing in office tenant and landlord representation and investment sales in the Greater Los Angeles area. Tyler is responsible for new business development and market specialization. Prior to joining L.A. Realty partners, Tyler started his career in real estate with Marcus & Millichap specializing in investment sales. Within three months of starting with Marcus & Millichap, Tyler closed his first transaction representing both the buyer and the seller.

Prior to his career in real estate, Tyler spent 10 years as an upper-level executive with a well-known hospitality group based in Southern California and was responsible for large-scale contract negotiations and overall company operations of the 18 unit restaurant company. Tyler's ultimate focus is on his client's needs and customer satisfaction through skilled negotiation, honesty and hard work. Tyler holds a Bachelor of Science in International Relations from the University of Southern California.

Tyler lives in Manhattan Beach, California with his three children Ryan, Brody and Grayson.

EDUCATION AND AFFILIATIONS

- Bachelor of Science, International Relations, University of Southern California