BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Hunt Barnett is a Principal with and Owner of L.A. Realty Partners, and has been a top broker in Los Angeles for more than 38 years. Hunt specializes in advising clients on all aspects of landlord and tenant representation including strategic planning, lease, purchase/sale, consultation, marketing, planning/construction and arbitration issues. Hunt's vast experience advising tenants, landlords and investors provides his clients with a unique perspective that most brokers cannot provide.

Formerly, Hunt was a Principal with Madison Partners from 2004 to 2010. Prior to this Hunt was a Senior Managing Director with Insignia/ESG. Before Insignia/ESG, Hunt was with CB Richard Ellis for almost 20 years where he was a regional and national top producer.

Throughout his career, Hunt has completed more than 1,300 lease transactions totaling over 13 million square feet, including extensive background in representing numerous entertainment, financial, defense and law firms in tenant representation assignments. Hunt's landlord representation practice including the largest current and former owners of real estate in the Westside of Los Angeles.

Hunt is a past recipient of the Los Angeles Business Journal's "Tenant Broker Award" and "Landlord Broker Award" and has been honored numerous times including "Hot Broker" by the California Real Estate Journal and "Power Broker" by Costar/Commercial Property News. Hunt has frequently been a speaker and/or panelist in front of groups such as: BOMA, BizNow, USC, and real estate, various investor and stock analyst groups. He is often quoted in the press as a market expert, and has appeared on CNBC's "Power Lunch".
