BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Blaise Slattery is a Senior Director with LA Realty Partners specializing in office leasing and sales. Blaise has represented clients at the highest level on all sides of the transaction process. His client list includes companies such as Nuveen, BlackRock, Korman, Sweetgreen, LAZ Parking, and Gersh Agency.

In his five-year career with LA Realty Partners, Blaise has transactional leasing and sales experience exceeding 500,000 Square Feet, with an aggregate value exceeding $300,000,000. His experience with institutional clients and exposure to corporate real estate strategy provides him with the knowledge to advise on and execute complex leasing and sale transactions. In 2021, Blaise represented both the buyer and seller during the off-market sale of 232 N Canon Drive, which then set the record for the highest price per square foot sale of a non-medical office building in Beverly Hills, CA.

Blaise grew up in San Diego, California and moved to Los Angeles after graduating from Southern Methodist University with a B.S. in Economics with Financial Applications, and a minor in Religious Studies. Blaise is known for his ability to develop meaningful and lasting relationships, while working diligently to ensure that his clients always achieve elite results.
